DAVID GREGERSEN • President

Enterprise Newspaper Group

President's Message

Dear Enterprise Readers,

We are excited to present you with the 2020 edition of The Enterprise-Utah's Business Journal Book of Lists. I started off last year's message with a statement about how incredible business was in 2018 for the state of Utah.

Just when you thought it couldn't get any better...

I was thinking, had the phrase, "another day, another dollar" been coined in 2019, it would have been more like, "another day, another grand."

Utah stayed in the top ranks by Forbes magazine as No. 3 for "Best States for Business" and No. 2 for "Labor Supply." An article by Stephen Moore of The Wall Street Journal was titled "Why Utah Has Become America's Economic Star: From Taxes to Education to the Business Climate, the Beehive State Has Its House in Order." The title and subtitle essentially say it all. Utah is one of the best business communities in the United States—and arguably THE best.

I am always impressed at the significance of this publication as a reference tool for the Utah business community. It gets used by our readers consistently throughout the year and has a long shelf life. The Book of Lists is free with a subscription to The Enterprise. Because we know how much the book gets used, we are pleased to provide it as a special bonus to our readers.

We survey companies throughout the year and gather information from various sources to give you the most sought-after and up-to-date lists available. Thanks to our entire staff for the extraordinary effort and long hours they put in to make this publication possible and to make The Enterprise Utah's No. 1 one source for local business news.

If your company would like to participate in our lists or if you have suggestions for new lists, please contact our research department at lists@slenterprise.com.

We would also like to thank our Book of Lists sponsors this year: Mountain America Credit Union, Maschoff Brennan and Big-D Construction. And to all our advertisers in this year's book, we thank you. We really appreciate you and our continued relationship.

Please enjoy this year's edition of The Enterprise-Utah's Business Journal Book of Lists. And thank you to our loyal subscribers for making The Enterprise a part of your professional lives and your choice for local business news and information.

I wish you good health and a prosperous 2020.

FOUR GOOD MEN. ONE GREAT COMPANY.

At Transcript Bulletin Publishing, we're proud of our deep heritage that began in 1894. With 125 years under our belt, that makes us the oldest continuous business in Tooele County, and one of the oldest in Utah. Transcript Bulletin Publishing has been owned and managed by the same family since 1899. It all began with Publisher James Dunn, a Scottish immigrant. His passion for the written word continued with his son, Alex, and then grandson, Joel. Those three men sparked the company and its newspaper, the Tooele Transcript Bulletin, to ultimately grow into a major printing, publishing and design enterprise with over 60 employees today. Now at the publisher helm, great-grandson Scott leads it all into a second century of existence with even greater passion and purpose. Four good men. One great company. Transcript Bulletin Publishing.

Quality Dedication Expertise

BUILDING GREATNESS SINCE 1925

When Paul Paulsen started Paulsen Construction in 1925, his vision was to create a company founded upon shared values, a culture of collaboration, and a common purpose: to be THE preferred builder and trusted partner in every market we serve.

Nearly a century later, and in our 4th generation of leadership, Paulsen Construction proudly instills Paul's original vision. In every encounter, we establish trust with candor and fairness. We build an environment for success through solution-driven teamwork—in our company, within our communities, and with our partners throughout the design and construction process.

Historical Restoration

A specialty of Paulsen Construction since 1975, projects have included historical buildings, concession facilities, state, county and city buildings, as well as religious institutions.

Commercial

We specialize in providing high-performing facilities in both the private and public markets. From tenant improvements to new corporate offices, green building, LEED environments or standard construction, we pay attention to the details to deliver the highest quality.

Institutional

Whether you desire new construction, remodel or need a seismic upgrade, we provide creative solutions with modern practices to deliver outstanding educational, medical and public works projects.

Industrial

Over the past 35 years, Paulsen Construction has become a recognized leader in public works including waste and culinary water systems, light-rail, storage, and manufacturing facilities.

THE VOICE OF UTAH'S MINING INDUSTRY SINCE 1915

For over 100 years, the Utah Mining Association has proudly represented an industry that is essential to everyone's lifestyle and standard of living. As the beginning of the supply chain for everything we use and everything we do as a society, the mining industry has a great story to tell, and our association strives to tell that story.

Now, more than ever, we advocate for Utah's mine operations and service partners. We are proud of Utah's record of safe, environmentally friendly mining practices, and we recognize the tremendous economic impact the industry has in Utah and beyond.
